

Are you complying with the Noise Induced Hearing Loss Regulations?

Inspectors of the Department of Labour will be visiting workplaces to check the level of compliance with the Noise Induced Hearing Loss Regulations.

QUESTION	YES	NO
1. Do you do work that expose people to noise at or above 85 decibels(A)?
2. Do you require or permit any person to enter the noise zone within your work place?
3. Are the person so permitted to enter the noise zone exposed to noise at or above 85 decibels(A)?
4. Are people who may be exposed to noise within the workplace trained on aspects of the Regulations?
5. Was an assessment of potential noise exposure done at your workplace?
6. Was a noise measurement programme of exposure carried out?
7. Is a medical surveillance system for all workers exposed to noise at or above 85 decibels(A) in place?
8. Is exposure of people to noise prevented?
9. Do you think that the noise levels in your workplace may affect your hearing?

Name of Company _____

Postal address _____

Street address _____

Telephone number _____ Fax number _____

Comments by person who answered the above mentioned questions:

Name

Signature

Date

Provincial Offices of the Department of Labour

Eastern Cape Tel: (043) 701 3000
Free State Tel: (051) 505 6200
Gauteng North Tel: (012) 309 5000
Gauteng South Tel: (011) 497 3000
KwaZulu-Natal Tel: (031) 336 1500

Limpopo Tel: (015) 290 1744
Mpumalanga Tel: (013) 655 8700
North West Tel: (018) 387 1800
Northern Cape Tel: (053) 838 1500
Western Cape Tel: (021) 460 5911

Website:
www.labour.gov.za

labour

Department:
Labour
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA